

BINGO

Build a Reading Fort and read in it	Read Outside	Call, Facetime or videochat with a friend or family member	Do a STEAM experiment - You can watch one of Miss Judy's videos for ideas!	Read a book while you enjoy a snack
Read a book with an animal in it	Do something kind	Ask a parent or grandparent what life was like when they were your age	Play a board game	Read to (or with) an animal - A family pet or a stuffed animal will work!
Write a Thank You note or email to a public servant or health care worker	Cook or bake something with a grown up	Read a Book	Read with a family member	Read an ebook - look for a book on BookFlix, Tumblebooks or Libby
Read with a family member – online or over the phone!	Make Art! Draw, color, paint, sculpt and share it with us!	Take an Alphabet Walk around your house or neighborhood	Read a funny book	Make an obstacle course and challenge your family to complete it!
Build something with LEGOS... Or with blocks, boxes, paper tubes or paper!	Go to storytimefromspace.com and listen to an astronaut read from outer space!	Read a book that makes you happy	Draw a picture or write a letter to mail or email to a relative	Tell us something you're looking forward to doing at the library when we open!

Kids of all ages can check off a square when they've completed an activity. Feel free to share pictures on Bridgeville or South Fayette Library Facebook or Instagram, or email verducik@einetwork.net! If you're not able to print the form out, you can draw your own Bingo Card and write the activities on your sheet. When the libraries are open, bring your Bingo card in for prizes! One or more Bingos wins a prize. Two or more Bingos win a free book. Fill in the whole board and you will be entered in a drawing to win a gift certificate!
